

Term: “Accurate Context”

Definition:

The context correctly represents and explains the evidence used in the essay. The reader has enough background information to understand the evidence being presented.