

IR BOOKLISTS: GRADES 2-6
What's In This Document?	This document lists the partial contents of every Greenfield IR library in grades 2-6. An additional generic library will be purchased to supplement what appears here. Each tab contains two book lists: the "99 Must Read Books" and the Unit Aligned Books. The "99 Must Read Books" are 99 novels that we are highly recommending scholars read (more on this below.) The Unit Aligned Books are selections of 3-5 books that align with or relate to each humanities content unit. Each tab lists the author, and, in most cases, the level of the book according to Fountas and Pinnell , Accelerated Reader , or Lexia .
How Were The Lists Compiled?	The booklists come from the collective knowledge of the Greenfield Academic Curriculum Team, Elm City deans and teachers, other experienced literacy teachers, youth librarians, and recommendations from sources such as the NAACP Image Awards for Youth Fiction, Coretta Scott King prize winners, We Need Diverse Books , and other sources. Our aim was to compile a list of books that could serve as a window into diverse experiences as well as a mirror reflecting the experiences and identities of our scholars.
What Are Next Steps?	In each grade level tab, columns such as "Genre" and "Summary" are left blank. This is an opportunity for IR teachers to familiarize themselves with the books on the lists by helping fill these columns in. We believe that teachers with a deep knowledge of the IR library will be best positioned to motivate scholars, recommend books to them, and act as full owners of scholars' IR experience.
Grades 3-6	For each book, note the... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Genre</li> <li>Reading level by another measure if you want (Lexia Lexile.com, scholastic book finder, or accelerated reader book finder)</li> <li>Note with "Y" or "N" whether the book is part of a series. If yes, you can recommend further reading in that series if students are interested.</li> <li>Paste in a summary from Amazon, Goodreads, or Accelerated Reader Book Finder</li> <li>Add 1-5 "hashtags" for each book. These could note salient features of the book towards which kids may be drawn or may relate, ie #dragons or #hallucinogenics. The idea is that hashtags can efficiently note features of the book that will appeal to students but that don't necessarily show up on summaries or genre notes. IR teachers can use these hashtags to guide their recommendations.</li> </ul>
Grade 2	For each book, note the... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Genre</li> <li>Reading level by at least one metric</li> <li>Note with "Y" or "N" whether the book is part of a series</li> <li>Paste in a summary from Amazon, Goodreads, or Accelerated Reader Book Finder</li> <li>Add 1-5 "hashtags" for each book. These should note salient features of the book to which students may relate or be drawn, ie #dragons or #hallucinogenics.
