III. School Report (Barry Jacobson on behalf of Vanessa Massiah, acting principal)

Barry Jacobson gave a report from Vanessa Massiah who is acting principal during Emily Banks' maternity leave. School culture is strong. Teacher Certification is going well. The school has started Crescendo which is an intense push towards end of year testing. The school is still working on providing incentives for attendance to reach their goals.

IV. Financial Report

Barry Jacobson reviewed the finance report and shared that the school overestimated the revenue for special education in their projections for this year. Going forward they will focus on improving projections for that line item.
