

Term: “Appropriate transitions”

Definition:

The transition words and phrases selected precisely and accurately capture the relationship between the ideas being joined together. These are not formulaic, nor are these words included for the sake of including transitions; there is intentionality behind the choice of transition words.