

Term: “Basic Literal Understanding”

Definition:

The scholar demonstrates that they have a literal standing of the text/content and task. There are no major misconceptions, but there might be a few minor inaccuracies. While this might include basic inferences, these ideas primarily live in the literal.