

Term: “Homophones”

Definition:

Homophones are words that are pronounced the same but have different meanings. To, two, and too are examples of homophones.