

Term: “Significant Misunderstanding”

Definition:

Ideas that include significant misunderstandings reveal serious content gaps that impede the scholar from fully addressing the task and potentially seriously confuse the reader. These misunderstandings are blatant and critical for a scholar to address the task at hand.