

Term: “Tone”

Definition:

The tone gets across the author’s feelings and attitude towards the topic being discussed. For example, if a natural disaster is being discussed the tone will likely be serious and respectful where as if a personal hero is being written about the tone will likely be admiring.