

Term: “Voice”

Definition:

The word choice ‘voice’ refers to the personality and individuality of the words being used. While writing should still be academic in style, certain words like “dominoed” and “fire starter”, both used in the World War II standard bearer, are more colorful, specific, and engaging than other bland choices, making them more memorable and powerful to the reader.