About Achievement First:

Achievement First, a non-profit 501(c)3 charter school management organization, operates 37 public charter schools in Brooklyn, Connecticut, and Rhode Island. The mission of Achievement First is to deliver on the promise of equal educational opportunity for all of America's children. We know that every child—regardless of race, zip code, or economic status—deserves access to great schools. Achievement First currently educates more than 14,000 students in historically underserved neighborhoods, with over 90% of our students identifying as Black or Latinx. Summary

Achievement First seeks a Counsel with a strong background in the legal issues involved with serving students in a public education setting and helping a large non-profit run effectively, particularly in the area of special education, school policies and procedures, employment law, contracts, governance, and related areas. The position will report to the General Counsel and will also work closely with our schools' leadership to support them in their legal needs.

Responsibilities of the Counsel will include but are not limited to:

- Provide legal advice and guidance to the network and directly to school leaders on education law, including without limitation special education, student disciplinary matters, student privacy; employment law; and charter law and authorization.
- Supervise responses to requests for information and subpoenas, participate in mediations and other employee related negotiations, and oversee related litigation handled by outside counsel.
- Ensure AF's staff policies and related documents meet the evolving needs of our schools, scholars, and staff by being involved in the AF Employee Handbook and Family Handbook annual review process if needed.
- Assist the organization in a wide variety of legal and non-legal work, including facilities acquisition, compliance and reporting, authorizer and governmental relations, and policy proposals.
- Stay current on relevant laws and regulations and be the subject matter expert on education law, employment law, public records and open meetings law, and other relevant areas.
- Represent the network in front of boards, government agencies, parents, and authorizers on legal issues impacting our scholars and/or organization.
- Prepare policy reports, memoranda, briefing papers and talking points for internal and external use on education issues.
- Assist the organization and schools as necessary on a variety of additional in-house legal matters.
- Develop relationships with other education lawyers and bring best practices to the organization.

Skills and Characteristics

- Ability to exercise considerable judgment and discretion in establishing and maintaining good working relationships in way that is consistent with Achievement First's culture and values.
- Strong legal reasoning, analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Capacity to analyze and articulate legal concepts and other complex issues to a variety of audiences.

- Ability to thrive in a fast-paced, entrepreneurial environment; flexible, able to work autonomously as well as take direction as needed.
- Excellent advocacy, oral and written communication skills.
- Project management experience; detail-oriented and highly organized.
- Maturity, humility, strong work ethic, sense of humor, and “roll-up-my-sleeves” attitude.
- Supports fair treatment and equal opportunity for all and enforces that policy within his/her sphere of influence.

Educational Background and Work Experience

- J. D. (Juris Doctor) required with 3 - 5 years of relevant experience obtained at a law firm, government agency or an educational institution.
- Experience in special education law or teaching students with disability is required.
- Licensed to practice in CT or NY.
- Litigation experience preferred.
- Evidence of ability to work well with colleagues, student families, outside counsel, network and school leaders, and opposing counsel.
- The ideal candidate will have a demonstrated passion for education reform and be eager to learn about the inner workings of running and managing high-performing charter schools.

Occasional weekend or evening work and travel to our schools in Connecticut, New York, and Rhode Island is required.

Compensation

Salary for this position is competitive and commensurate with experience. Additionally, Achievement First offers a comprehensive benefits package.
