III. Principal Report

Mr. Simon Obas gave the principal report for Amistad High School reviewing college applications, adult culture, and classroom instruction.

Sixteen students were accepted to college through early decision/action, including three students accepted into Yale University. In March, the class of 2020 will take the SAT for the second time, the first was in December. Mr. Obas discussed the need for an additional college counselor next as the student population grows with each incoming class.

Mr. Obas described his focus on classroom instruction as a priority for the coming school year and the desire for there to be deep level conceptual thinking in the classroom.

IV. Financial Report

Laura Saverin gave the financial report. The Amistad High School Director of School Operations attended the finance call last week, sharing confidence that the budget for the coming year will be realistic and based strongly upon expected enrollment.

V. Board Business

The board did not have a quorum and did not conduct any board business.
