

Associate Director of 9-12 History

Start Date: July 2020
Team: Team Teaching and Learning
Location: Based out of Brooklyn, NY or New Haven, CT

About Achievement First:

Achievement First, a non-profit 501(c)3 charter school management organization, operates 37 public charter schools in Brooklyn, Connecticut, and Rhode Island. The mission of Achievement First is to deliver on the promise of equal educational opportunity for all of America's children. We know that every child—regardless of race, zip code, or economic status—deserves access to great schools. Achievement First currently educates more than 14,000 students in historically underserved neighborhoods, with over 90% of our students identifying as Black or Latinx. For more information about the Achievement First mission, model, our schools and team, please visit our website at www.achievementfirst.org.

Summary

The Associate Director of 9-12 History is an integral part of the high school team that works with principals, academic deans, and teachers to craft and drive the vision behind an exemplary composition program. We work closely with these teammates to ensure that they develop the tools, skills, and knowledge necessary to navigate a changing landscape through professional and curricular development, core skill building, classroom observations and data analysis. This position offers the opportunity to be at the forefront of this instructional work at one of the nation's top charter school networks.

Responsibilities of the Associate Director of 9-12 History Will Include but Are Not Limited to:

- Manage Program Vision and Implementation
  - Act as a thought partner to the network leadership teams to help synthesize the network vision for composition instruction, contribute to the development of clear programmatic recommendations for school leaders, and disseminate pertinent and cutting edge research to key players
  - Provide direct support to schools by observing instruction alongside Academic Deans and working with deans to provide feedback and support to teachers
- Coordinate Core Systems
  - Coordinate school leaders, deans and teachers in maintaining quality control of core systems integral to teaching and learning, such as process-based assessment, interventions, data collection, etc.
- Facilitate Professional Development
  - With the high school history team, develop professional development sessions that support vision setting for the program, implementation of the curriculum and growth of core skills and knowledge
- Develop Curriculum
  - Develop exemplary curriculum materials that are aligned to the Common Core State Standards and AP requirements
  - Manage school-based planners and consultants by providing formal and informal feedback on their materials. Specifically, these materials will include unit plans, assessments, accompanying lesson plans and student work
- Coaching and Observations

- Conduct focused observations to push content-specific instructional practices, improve implementation of curriculum, gather information on best practices and pilot new projects
- Develop instructional eye of deans and principals through focused co-observations and feedback
- Analyze Data
  - Deeply analyze student achievement data (student growth, student work samples, interim assessments and state tests) to determine how to better develop materials and provide targeted, high quality teacher training

Skills and Characteristics

- Deep content and pedagogical expertise in history
- Exceptional collaboration, communication, analytical and influencing skills
- Exemplary writing skills
- Willingness to do “whatever it takes” and strong team player
- The ability to work autonomously as well as take direction as needed
- Solid technical skills and experience with Microsoft Office Suite
- An acute attention to detail and excellent organizational skills
- The ability to see through multiple projects with many moving parts from beginning to end
- Belief in the Achievement First mission and open to educational model
- Maturity, humility, strong work ethic, sense of humor, and “roll-up-my-sleeves” attitude

Educational Background and Work Experience

We would prefer a candidate with:

- A bachelor’s degree
- Experience as a highly successful history teacher and people leader
- A proven, multi-year track record of exemplary history achievement, especially the achievement of low-income, minority students

Some weekend/evening work and travel within New York and Connecticut are required.

Compensation

Salary for this position is competitive and commensurate with experience. Additionally, Achievement First offers a comprehensive benefits package.
